Although I didn't live during the 50's & 60's, the book gave me a sense of being there and experiencing what must have been exciting times for teenagers and young adults. I love Motown music and listened to several favorites mentioned in the book. I'm certain other readers will enjoy the book.

Kelly D. - California

I grew up during the period discussed in the book. It brought back memories of one of the most enjoyable times in my life, especially cruising in town with my girlfriend ( who I eventually married! ) in my 1957 custom Chevy. Wish I still had that car!

Tom C. - Washington

My Grandpa shared a lot with me about his experiences growing up in southern California during the 1950's; cruising in his hot rod, hanging out at the Drive-In-Restaurant, plus other things. He shared the book with me. Sounded like a real innocent time. I read it....Great!

Billy S. - California

Rock n' Roll'n - The 50's & 60's was a gas to read. Man, I wish I could have lived during those times. Saw the movie Rebel Without A Cause on TV. It was mentioned in the book. Must have been a real trip living back then!

"Boney" D. - Colorado

My wife found this book while fishing around the Internet. She gave it to me as a gift. We're both in our 70's and lived in Philly during those days. Was once on American Bandstand. She gave it to me as a gift. We read it together. Thoroughly enjoyable! Brought back a lot of great memories.

Dixon & Marge F. - Pennsylvania

I actually grew up in Vallejo, California and remember the author. He belonged to a low rider's car club that had a dance at the old Casa de Vallejo hotel. I was at it! I also remember the motorcycle gang that tried to break it up....also mentioned in the book. Great reading!

Bill Y. - Southern Cal
